MEDICINAL.

NO MAN IS STRONGER THAN HIS STOMACH

When Sandow poses and the muscles ridge his back and knot his arms, we think we have before us the very secret of strength in those magnificent muscles. But we haven't. Starve Sandow, or what is practically the same thing, let him be dyspeptic, and his muscle would soon fail. Strength is made from food properly digested and assimilated, and no man is stronger than his stomach, because when the stomach is diseased digestion and assimilation are imperfect.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food so that the body is nourished into perfect health and strength.

"I had what my physician called indigestion. He gave me medicine for the trouble but it did me no good," writes Mr. W. H. Wells, of Wilford, N. C. "I wrote to Dr. Pierce and stated my case. He sent me a descriptive list and I bought six bottles of his 'Golden Medical Discovery' and commenced taking it. A few days later I noticed a great change. I felt like a new man. Before I began the use of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' I suffered greatly with pain in stomach, my nerves seemed all run-down, I was very thin in flesh, but now can eat heartily and sleep good at night."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send twenty-one one-cent stamps for the paper-covered book, or thirty-one stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

KODOL

Digests What You Eat.

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Kodol

Digests What You Eat

Mrs. Loring Nichols of Penn Yan, N. Y., writes: "After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I feel like a new man."

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders, and gives the heart a full, free and untrammelled action. Bottle only, $1.00. Size holding 2 1/2 times the trial size, which sells for 50c.

PROUD OF GEN. WHEELER.

A dispatch from New Orleans says there was a report that Gen. Joseph Wheeler had been slighted and had not appeared in the Confederate parade for that reason. While the parade was passing in Camp street General Wheeler saw part of it from the sidewalk. Capt. James Dinkins, director-general of the reunion, was reported as saying that he had forgotten to provide General Wheeler with a carriage. "Everybody came to me for carriages—that is, those who desired them. They were not tendered to anyone. Some of the friends of General Wheeler should have come to me and asked for a carriage, for the reason that General Wheeler could not, with decency, have done so himself. I did not have any idea that General Wheeler was in the city until passing through the corridor of the St. Charles Hotel on the way to the parade. At that time it would have been impossible to procure a carriage for the General, even had I known that he desired it."

Captain Dinkins was then asked whether the fact that after serving in the Confederate army he accepted a command in the United States army. "On the contrary," said the Captain, "we are just as proud of General Wheeler's record as an American soldier in the Spanish-American and Philippine wars as we are of his record in the war between the States. We know that the success of the American arms at Santiago was due to General Wheeler's courage and ability. We know that but for his presence the result might have been disaster instead of victory. Why should we, then, desire to slight General Wheeler? His record in war and in peace commands him to every southern man. There is nothing he can be ashamed of, and nothing in his record of which we are not proud. Any effort to impress the public with the idea that we intended to slight General Wheeler does us a great injustice. There is not a word of truth in it. Nor is there a word of truth in the statement that I admitted having forgotten to provide General Wheeler with a carriage. As a matter of fact, the Confederate soldiers and the people of the country generally have the greatest admiration for him, and on all occasions seek to honor him. General Wheeler and myself have been intimate friends for 35 years, and I believe he would not hesitate to call on me to render any service in my power, nor do I believe that he would say that I would intentionally neglect him."

SUICIDE OF GROCER.—Despondent because of heavy losses in Wall street, George A. Kennard, once a wealthy wholesale grocer, of St. Joseph's Mo., from which city he moved recently to New York, shot and killed himself yesterday afternoon in a barber shop. Kennard had gone into the barber shop and asked for a bathroom. An Italian employee of the place directed him back to the bathroom in the rear of the shop. A few minutes later a pistol shot rang through the place. The door was locked, but through the transom the man inside could be seen sitting before a mirror with a gaping wound in his right temple and a revolver on his knees. In front of him was a box, from which the revolver evidently had just been taken. The man was dead when the policeman reached his side. In one of his pockets was found a letter addressed to George A. Kennard, at 120 Madison avenue, by a firm of brokers. It was found that Kennard had been boarding at that address, and Joseph Dodd, proprietor of the house, identified the body as that of Kennard. Mr. Dodd said that Kennard with his wife and 14-year-old daughter had been boarding at his house. He said Kennard had come from St. Joseph, Mo., about three weeks ago, having conducted a big wholesale grocery business there. The business finally dwindled, however, he said, and Mr. Kennard came to New York. From the letter found in his pocket it was inferred that Kennard had speculated heavily in Wall street and had lost.

FIFTY CONVICTS HAVE ARMS.—Capt. J. K. Wiggins, formerly of the Forty-fourth Volunteer Infantry in the Philippines, has arrived at San Francisco on the Cosmo liner Meues from Patagonia, where he has been gold-mining for a year. He says that Argentina had a penal colony made up of life termers from the military and civil courts located on Staten Island, Terra del Fuego. A short time ago, while moving the prison to Ushuaia, 50 of the prisoners escaped, secured arms and ammunition and have since been terrorizing the residents. Murders have been of daily occurrence, and the situation became so serious that the government issued orders that the desperadoes were to be shot on sight. The day before Captain Wiggins took the steamer at Punta Arenas the chief of police was killed. The government has also offered a reward of $5 for every head of an Onaha, a savage tribe in the interior that is unsubdued. J. K. Rifel, a sheep rancher from Terra del Fuego, another arrival on the same steamer, says that the average is about one wreck a week on the Terra del Fuego shore, and just before he left for California a British bark was broken up in his vicinity.

CONSUL GRABS ISLANDS.—Information received on the best authority confirms the rumors that three small islands near Pitcairn were seized by England recently. It appears that the islands were regarded by British Consul Simons, at Tahiti, as valuable, anticipating the completion of the Panama canal. He was under the impression that sooner or later the French Government might annex them, and so, without waiting for definite instructions from his Government, sent Mr. McCoy, the English resident on Pitcairn Island, to take over the three islands for the British Government. Later an English warship, at Mr. Simons' request, went from Tahiti to the new possessions and completed certain formalities. When the action was reviewed by the British Foreign Office Consul Simons received full approval for his foregoing. Ducie Island has a safe harbor and Elizabeth Island has many attractive features. There are no inhabitants in the group. Colonial troops are to be withdrawn from Tahiti in the near future. They are considered to be wholly unnecessary to that colony and are a great burden upon the treasury.

A Little Early Riser
now and then, at bedtime will cure constipation, biliousness and liver troubles. Dr. Witt's Little Early Riser are the famous little pills that cure by arousing the secretions, moving the bowels gently, yet effectually, and giving such tone and strength to the glands of the stomach and liver that the cause of the trouble is removed entirely, and if their use is continued for a few days, there will be no return of the complaint.
